

Name: _____

CouponsForCollege

John is in his first year of college. He's going to earn a bachelor's degree in four years. He is studying advertising, so he can design cool advertisements. But right now, he has to pay his college tuition bill. Because John has volunteered and helped people, he has lots of scholarships. They're like coupons for college!

JOHN'S TUITION (how much college costs)	$10,000.00
	—
FIVE GOOD CITIZEN SCHOLARSHIPS ($100 EACH) = 5 x $100 =	_____
How much is left in John's tuition bill?	_____

Shannon is in her first year of college, too. She is going to be a medical assistant. She will help doctors in surgeries. College will take two years. Then Shannon will have an associate degree. But first she has to pay for college! Thankfully, Shannon has worked very hard in school. She has a scholarship.

SHANNON'S TUITION (how much college costs)	$4,000.00
	—
SUPER SMART SCIENCE STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP	$1,344.00
Now how much is left in Shannon's tuition bill?	_____

Jarrid is almost done with college. He has been in college for seven years, and he is almost an architect! He will draw buildings so that construction people know how to build them. To help pay for college, Jarrid is working for a professor. He earns money for college every time he helps teach a class.

JARRID'S TUITION (how much college costs)	$23,550.00
	—
TEACHING TWELVE CLASSES ($200 EACH) = 12 x $200 =	_____
Now how much is left in Jarrid's tuition bill?	_____

Whose college degree will take the longest? _____

Which job do you think you would like most? Why? _____